Vs.

Parshwanath Co-op. Housing Society Ltd. & Ors. ..Respondents

Mr. Anil Subramaniam for petitioner.

CORAM: B.H. MARLAPALLE, J.

Date : August 9, 2006.

P.C.:

. The appeals decided by the impugned order by the learned Member of the Maharshtra State Co-operative Appellate Court dated 15/10/2004 arose from the final awards passed by the Co-operative Court in Dispute Nos.153, 154, 155, 156 and 159 of 1992 and 158 of 1993. Hence, in view of my order passed in Writ Petition No.3334 of 2006, the petitioners have an alternative efficacious remedy by filing Civil Revision Application under Section 115 of C.P.C. and they are hereby relegated to the said remedy. No interlocutory orders have been passed in these petitions.

. Hence, the petitions are disposed with liberty to file Civil Revision Application and in case of any issue on limitation, if the Civil Revision Applications are filed within four weeks from today, the period of pendency of these petitions shall be excluded for counting limitation.
